KICKED HIM OUT.

His Object Was to Get the Price of a Witness Ticket.

There has been, for several weeks, perhaps months, a tall, lank, saffron-hued, one-legged, banjo-pickin' coon around Greensboro. Business in his line of late, has, evidently, not been very flush, and he set about to devise ways and means to raise a small stake of filthy lucre. In the fertility of his brain he hatched up a story and had a negro in High Point arrested on a charge of selling whiskey.

Yesterday afternoon "the cause coming on to be heard" Mr. W. P. Ragan was on hand to represent the High Point darkey. Solicitor Bynum, who has been helping Judge Timberlake hustle business along at a lively rate, and possibly with visions of another easy victory before his gaze, and the subsequent fee helping to swell his wallet, briskly called No. —. The "merschaum colored coon" was quickly hustled to the witness stand to tell his story which was to convict the High Point fellow.

In due time he was turned over to Mr. Ragan who began by asking him:

"Who told you to swear out a warrant against this man?" To which he answered:

"Nobody."

"How many times have you been indicted for selling liquor?" This question tickled him, evidently, and he answered:

"I don't know how many; but I always paid out and made it up."

Mr. Ragan then took another tack and asked him: "Didn't you tell So and So on the streets today, that you had never bought any liquor from this man here?"

"I was not on the witness stand, then."

The solicitor here took a hand and asked: "Did you say that?"

"Yes, sir; but I was not swearing."

Mr. Bynum: "Well, get off that stand; we don t want any liars here."

Judge Timberlake: "Don't let this witness prove any ticket in this case, Mr. Clerk. Call the next case Mr. Solicitor."

Guilford College Notes.

Guilford College, Aug. 24.

School opened Tuesday with over 100 new students. Every available room about the college is being used for dormitories and the old students who come a day late find it difficult to get their old rooms. The buildings have been thoroughly overhauled and on the inside have a bright and attractive appearance.

A complete system of water works and sewerage have been put in during the summer, which adds much to the convenience of the college. The water is brought to the college by a hydraulic ram or "sheep what aint got no wool" as some call it.

Every available foot-ball suit is in use and the prospects for a good team this year are very promising. A number of last years team have returned and Captain Armfield has had his men out every day this week and is getting down to hard work.

Society work is going on quietly but persistently.

The usual Y. M. C. A. reception comes off Saturday night.

A Mining Company Formed

In the Seventh.

Mr. John M. Julian, chairman of the democratic executive committee of Rowan county, who was in the city today, tells the Telegram that the election of Hon Theo. F. Klutz, the democratic nominee for congress in the Seventh, is as near a certainty as such events can be at this distance from election day. He says Rowan county will nearly overcome Shuford's majority of two years ago in the entire district.

MURDER OR MANSLAUGHTER?

Sam Lucas On Trial For Killing Henry Wood.

DEFENCE OFFERED NO EVIDENCE

The Argument of Council is Going On as We Go to Press—A Summary of The Evidence Given.

At 10:15 o'clock this morning the case of State vs. Sam Lucas for the murder of Henry Wood, which occurred in this city last Saturday afternoon, was called. Col. Jno. N. Staples and D. Schenck, Jr., counsel for the prisoner, asked for a continuance on the ground that the wife of defendant was absent, in Boston, Mass., where she is at work; that it was essential that she be here to assist in making preparations for her husbands defence; that after diligent effort a message had been received in which she stated she would come at the earliest possible moment; that Lucas is poor and totally without means to prosecute the case; that his wife has the means and would be of great service in giving Lucas a fair chance for his life.

To these appeals the judge announced that he had anticipated this state of things and on Tuesday had made inquiry as to who would represent Lucas and had been told by Col. Staples that he would represent him. Otherwise he would then have appointed counsel to defend him. "Proceed with the case gentlemen."

Mr. Schenck then announced that as he had appeared in the case thus far he would, with His Honor's permission, continue as associate counsel with Col. Staples.

Over an hour was consumed in the selection of a jury and at 12:10 the examination of witnesses began. C. C. Collins was the first witness called. He testified in substance as follows:

I know Henry Wood. About 2:30 o'clock he came to the express office. Sam Lucas passed by with a companion and stood a few moments in front of Fergeson's store. Then walked partly across the street and talked awhile, then returned to the sidewalk in front of Fergeson's. Then walked toward the express office and put his hand in his pocket as if to get a weapon. By this time he reached the sidewalk in front of the office door. Here he drew his pistol. Wood saw him and ran. Lucas advanced toward the door and fired. Wood was running and was about twelve feet away. Lucas advanced and snapped his pistol. Wood had gotten about 50 feet through the office and Lucas fired again. I saw Wood put his hand up to his back at the second shot. Lucas still advanced and fired again. The fifth time he attempted to fire Wood was in the back yard attempting to get over the fence. The first attempt to get over the fence he failed, but in the second he succeeded and rolled over. I said, "Sam, you are a fool to come in a place and shoot, you might hit somebody." He said, "that's all right, captain, I wasn't after anybody but that negro." He further said, "If there is a policeman here he can take and lock me up." Lucas was in front of the office eight or ten minutes before he fired the first shot.

Cross examined: I think Lucas was there at least eight minutes before the first shot was fired.

W. J. Weatherly: I arrested Lucas. He was on the sidewalk when I got there. While under custody he said: "I am afraid I haven't got him." I took his pistol. He again said: "I shot that negro and am afraid I have not killed him. I shot two other negroes, and if you'll let me have your gun and turn me loose I'll go back and fix that negro."

Cross-examined: The first I heard of the difficulty was the shots fired. I heard them and hurried there. Lucas had been drinking. Lucas told me Wood had called him a d—n liar, and he didn't allow no man to call him that, black or white.

Dr. J. T. J. Battle: Was called to see Wood about three o'clock Saturday afternoon. Found him on the ground between express office and Ashe street. I saw he was severely wounded. The doctor described the wound just as was printed in this paper on Monday. Wood died about one o'clock Sunday morning. The wound was the cause of his death.

F. V. Snell: I saw Lucas just before the shooting. He went up stairs at the Piedmont House and was gone only a moment. He came back and hesitated at the foot the stairs, and putting his hand to his pocket remarked: "I'll kill the son — — —."

Cross-examined: No change in his evidence.

On reassembling after the noon recess W. J. Weatherly was recalled: Lucus said he went to his room to get his own pistol, but it wasn't there. If he had got his own pistol he would have fixed him right there, there wouldn't have been any jumping and running about it.

Cross-examined: The witness reiterated his former statements.

State rested its case.

The defense introduced no testimony and the argument to the jury began. Col. Staples led in an eloquent appeal for the prisoner's life.

The speeches of counsel will probably occupy the remainder of the day. Maj. Stedman and Solicitor Bynum follow Col. Staples, speaking for the prosecution, and D. Schenck, Jr., for the defence, will close the argument.

MR. ALGER IS INVESTIGATING

The Rumors of Incompetency at Montauk Point

STORE FULL OF COTS AND BEDS

And Yet the Men Were Sleeping on the Ground—The Affairs Being Bettered—Other News.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Montauk, August 25—Secretary Alger passed his first night in camp in his private car, and was up bright and early this morning conducting an investigation of the rumors of incompetency in the management of the quartermasters department, which is already showing the effect of his visit.

While at the camp of the Second Massachusetts regiment Secretary Alger found many soldiers sleeping on the ground, many of them having no blankets. He expressed surprise at such conditions existing while there were several thousand cots and bed ticks in the store house, and it was not long before wagon trains from the depot began the wholesale distribution of these much needed articles, with tons of straw for extra warmth as well.

Many of the new patients in the hospital owe their illness to the fact that after the last storm subsided they had to lie down on the wet ground to sleep. The hospital situation is now much more serious, owing to the prevalence of pneumonia, and many new tents for hospitals are being hurriedly erected.

THE SHIPP MONUMENT.

In the matter of raising a fund to erect a suitable monument to Lieutenant Wm. E. Shipp, the Charlotte Observer this morning contained a list of names of gentlemen in different towns and cities of the state who are asked to co-operate in soliciting subscriptions to this fund.

Those selected for Greensboro are: R. M. Phillips, Hons. Thos. Settle and R. R. King.

Our patriotic citizens now have a chance to contribute to this worthy movement. Contributions and subscriptions will be received at this office.

The reference in yesterday's paper to some of our telegraphic news being printed in the Record was not intended to convey the idea that our brethren of that paper were to blame and any one would have to "strain a point" to so construe it. The fault lies with the telegraph operatives, evidently, for if the message had been marked properly the Record people would have seen it, even if the messenger had overlooked it and carried it to them instead of where it properly belonged. We hope this is sufficiently plain.

Editor Joe Robinson, of the Goldsboro Argus, who is not given to the use of strong language in expressing his opinions, in writing about the slander of white women by the negro editor of Wilmington, says that "the black fiend who penned those lines (the infamous slander of white women) and published them to the world could not do so in Goldsboro and live till the ink got dry; and we don't think we do violence to the manner of white men who constitute this community in saying this."

EDITOR BAILEY.

We gladly surrender sufficient editorial space today to print the following opinion from the Davidson Dispatch. We heartily endorse what the Dispatch says and to the last sentence we respond with a loud "Amen."

J. W. Bailey, editor of the Biblical Recorder, wrote a letter and in that letter he simply said that he could not consistently remain on a board with men whom he knew had crooked ways. For this manly stand he is roundly denounced, not by the voters of any party but by the politicians who fear that his course will damage them in their efforts to keep their noses in the public trough. Things are coming to a pretty pass when a christian gentleman is not allowed to go according to the dictates of his own conscience without being denounced and hounded down by men who have selfish motives. They say he will be handled by the church. And for what: For laying bare the corruption of the fusion bosses? Villification, slander, misrepresentation, vituperation and all kindred works invariably prove a veritable boomerang to the ones who originate them. J. W. Bailey will be the editor of the organ of the Baptist church in North Carolina, if he lives, long after all these fusion bosses who villify him will have been forgotten.

MR. LEAZAR WRITES.

The Fusion Administration is Shamefully Incompetent.

Raleigh, N. C., Aug, 24, '98.

To the Editor: I saw yesterday in your paper of recent date, certain letters by Chairman Dockery and ex-Superintendent Smith in regard to the penitentiary affairs containing many petty quibbles and doubtless designed by them as some sort of palliation to an outraged public sentiment for their mal-administration of important state business. When their management of the penitentiary has been condemned for incompetency and worse by every man fairly well acquainted with public affairs, of all parties, from the chief executive down to the townships, and when, driven into a corner and refusing information that every citizen is entitled to, they have been at last smoked out by the fire of general indignation, they have now in the eighth month of 1898 offered these feeble diatribes as information to the people as to the business of the penitentiary for the year 1897. If the business has been conducted according to law, why do they not make a report as required by the statute, and give the information desired? Mr. Dockery says:

"Theoretically, the law requires the report of the superintendent of the state's prison shall be made on the 1st day of January."

I affim that it can be done, and practically always has been done heretofore. And if a few days' delay were necessary, how does he account for a delay of eight months and then respond only upon the demand of the chief executive forced by the public clamor?

Both of these officials affirm in this so-called report that Superintendent Smith took charge of the penitentiary April 1, 1897. The records show that he qualified on the 5th of March, 1897, and he notified me the same day, whereupon I at once turned over the whole business, and after never contracted for a cent, never collected a cent and never paid out a cent. The statement, therefore, that I was responsible for any business of the penitentiary, outgoing or incoming, after the 5th day of March, is without foundation.

It is stated in Mr. Dockery's letter (or report) that "Mr. Smith found all the farms in a very backward state of preparation; and indeed upon some of them very little at all had been done toward making the new crop." Mr. Dockery does not seem to recollect that in the first month of the fusion administration, between the 20th and 27th of March, a committee of his board, Messrs. Clark, Perkins, and Cotton, together with the superintendent visited all the penitentiary farms, for the purpose of inspecting and receiving the property. I heard all the members of the committee, especially Mr. Clark, as also the superintendent, express astonishment and delight at the advanced and careful preparation of the lands, Mr. Clark asserting that he believed there was no farm in the state in such good condition as that before him. This mis-statement is so palpable that it vitiates all other statements made. The truth is there were not less than 7,000 acres of these lands beautifully and thoroughly prepared by the 20th of March. If nothing had been done, which I say again is absolutely false, why did the incoming administration employ my supervisors to remain and make the crop? And if nothing had been done till the 1st of April, how was such a large crop made that year?

As to supplies on hand, the fusionists seem to have expected that the democrats should have provided at least a year's rations of flour, meat, etc., for their benefit. We usually bought such things of this kind as were needed every month, and we expected them to do likewise or as they deem best. It is admitted that there was not corn to reach corn again, because, as every one knows, the July floods of 1896 destroyed the whole corn crop except about 20,000 barrels.

Much ado is made by these officials because they found amongst nearly 400 mules and horses a very few sick, disabled or worn out animals. We found it necessary every year to dispose of inefficient stock, and to replace them with others fit for the service. We found the penitentiary in 1893 with 210 mules and horses. We added just about that number of young and vigorous animals during our term, and the average of the whole was very high to any one capable of judging and who is not determined to misrepresent.

If Mr. Smith sold 831 bales of cotton for $20,061.27, as he reports, then he received only about 5 cents per pound for it. Hundreds of bales were sold in February at an average of 6¾ cents in Norfolk, equivalent to 6⅞ at home markets, and the price was ¼ to ½ cent higher in April than in February. It is not to be forgotten by these guardians of the State's interests, that a large part of the fertilizer, several hundred tons, was bought from parties who bought much of the cotton; and for these, several dollars more per ton were paid than the stuff was offered at by other responsible parties. Certainly this could not prove less than the baldest incompetency. According to the code of ethics of the late Ben Butler, a man might prefer to be called a knave rather than a fool.

These officials find much fault with the democratic administration because their superintendent, they allege, exerted great influence to prevent an appropriation by the last General Assembly for the penitentiary for the years 1897 and 1898. The superintendent differed with Governor Carr as to the necessity for an appropriation, and declined to recommend it, though the Govenor did. When asked by the Superintendent-to-be and by the legislative committee on Penal Institutions to recommend an appropriation, he declined to do so, saying that it should not be necessary and that the penitentiary could be sustained in the future as it had been in 1896 without the people's taxes. Some other persons, very few, may have asked my opinion about an appropriation, and if so, I made the same answer. It is strangely paradoxical to charge that I had any influence at all with that mob called the General Assembly of 1897. I had no influence at all with them, and desired none.

Mainly by way of feeble criticisms of the former administration rather than by a plain business like statement of the affairs committed to their trust, these officials, who have been clearly unfaithful to the state, hope to avert the blow threatened by the indignant public. The removal of Supt. Smith from the control of the penitentiary is confession of judgment before the open court of public opinion in North Carolina, that the fusion administration has been shamefully incompetent, if not worse. The people have a right to look at the books, and they intend to do it, and they will yet see what have been the receipts of the penitentiary and what has become of them.

A. Leazar,
Ex-Superintendent.

Two divers of Detroit recently became involved in an argument as to the weight which submarine workers carry with them under the water, and one of them offered to bet $50 that the other could not walk three-quarters of a mile with his feet encased in diving shoes weighing 241 pounds each in two and a half hours. The wager was accepted and the diver who had been challenged accomplished the feat with thirty-five minutes to spare.

The Best Remedy for Flux.

Mr. John Mathias, a well known stock dealer of Pulaski, Ky., says: "After suffering for over a week with flux, and my physician having failed to relieve me, I was advised to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and have the pleasure of stating that the half of one bottle cured me." For sale by C. E. Holton.

The Rev. W. B. Costley, of Stockbridge, Ga., while attending to his pastoral duties at Ellenwood, that state, was attacked by cholera morbus. He says: "By chance I happened to get hold of a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoe Remedy, and I think it was the means of saving my life. It relieved me at once." For sale by C. E. Holton.

Something to Depend On.

Mr. James Jones, of the drug firm of Jones & Son, Cowden, Ill., in speaking of Dr. King's New Discouery, says that last winter his wife was attacked with la grippe, and her case grew so serious that physicians at Cowden and Pana could do nothing for her. It seemed to develop into hasty consumption. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in store, and selling lots of it, he took a bottle home, and to the surprise of all she began to get better from first dose, and half dozen dollar bottles cured her sound and well. Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds is guaranteed to do this good work. Try it. Free trial bottles at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Charlotte, N. C., April 5, 1895.

Mrs, Joe Person,

Madam—Last year I was afflicted with some skin trouble affecting my feet, pronounced by my physician to be erythema. I was confined to my room for some two months, and was lame for some six months or more. After trying many remedies without effecting a cure, I resorted to your remedy. After using three bottles I began to improve and before I had finished the fifth or sixth bottle I was practically free of the trouble. Once since then there recurred symptoms of its return, when I again resorted to your remedy and again the trouble disappeored. I believe I am indebted to you for relief from a very serious affliction. Yours truly,

WILMINGTON NEGROES UGLY.

They Surround the Office of the Negro Paper in Great Numbers.

Wilmington, August 24—Since early night-fall great crowds of negroes have been assembled around the office of The Record, the negro paper which has created so much indignation here. The gathering is supposed to be the result of a report that an anonymous letter has been sent to the negro editor, warning him to leave town. The whites have paid very little attention to the incident. Thus far no demonstration has been made of an exciting character, and the negroes have been comparatively quiet. The whites are cool, but determined. Thus far they have exercised a wonderful degree of forbearance; but if the worst comes they will do their duty and if they need help it will come with a mighty run from the surrounding country.—Special to the Charlotte Observer.

The famous vine at Hampton Court Palace, which is now 130 years old, having been planted in 1768, shows no falling off in fertility and contains 1200 bunches of fruit. The grapes are just beginning to ripen, and in about a week's time the fruit which is sent to the Queen for use at her table, will be fully matured.

A scrub woman at the New York City Hall, who boasts of a political pull, says that she is a lady, and for that reason she refuses to pick up scraps of paper from the floor. She posted a notice in one of the rooms reading as follows: "Don't throw scraps of paper on the floor. They'll stay there. Remember, your mother was a woman."

NOTHING FOR THE PRESS

Until After the Work of The Commission is Finished.

Quebec, Aug. 24—No meeting of the joint arbitration commissions was held today. Both the American and Canadian commissioners are at work on plans for procedure and will compare notes and decide upon a plan at the joint meeting tomorrow. One point, however, has been determined. Nothing in detail of the commission's work will be given to the press until after its work is finished. This has been agreed upon by both sides. The reason for this is to prevent as far as possible the demands for hearings before the commission. Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Senator Fairbanks have both stated that it would be impossible for the commission to grant general hearings.

Sir James Winter, the representative from New Foundland, arrived at noon and will be present at the joint session tomorrow. Tonight Sir Wilfrid Laurier gave a dinner to the commissioners at the Garrison Club, and in all the speeches was expressed the sentiment that the work of the commission would be carried out in a most amiable manner and that the results would be of lasting benefit to the two great nations.

Yesterday a rumor was going about here that the conference would at the joint meeting tomorrow adjourn for an indefinite period to meet at Washington. There appears to be no good foundation for the rumor. It is quite possible that the commission may take a rest after two or three weeks, but the commissioners on both sides stated tonight that no adjournment would be taken until after the work had been carefully looked over and both sides had become satisfied as to what would be accomplished in the way of general adjustment of all questions to be decided.

DEWEY AND MERRITT.

Washington, Aug. 23—The following dispatches from Admiral Dewey and Major General Merritt, acknowledging the President's congratulations on the fall of Manila, were made public today at the White House:

"To President McKinley, Washington:

"On behalf of the squadron and myself, I thank you most heartily for the congratulations and thanks you were pleased to express. It will always be a source of pride to us all to have received such commendation. Your cable will be published on board the ships of the squadron tomorrow.

(Signed) "George Dewey."

"Manila, Aug. 23.

"To the President, Washington:

"For my troops and myself accept my sincerest acknowledgements for your generous praise of the success of our campaign. America may well be proud of the troops.

(Signed) "Merritt."

A queer character, who calls himself Mike Jimmyson, and who professes to be an ex-prize fighter and an all 'round athlete, is making a tour of Kansas. On arriving in a town he proceeds to the livery stable, where he gives an exhibition of club swinging, heavy weight lifting and juggling, not forgetting to box any man in the crowd. Between acts he delivers a very effective lecture, claiming that his skill and strength are due to his abstemious habits. At the end he takes up a collection, three-fifths of which he gives to the local Methodist church, and then moves on to the next town.

About one month ago my child which is fifteen months old, had an attack of diarrhoea accompanied by vomiting. I gave it such remedies as are usually given in such cases, but as nothing gave relief we sent for a physician and it was under his care for a week. At this time the child had been sick for about ten days and was having about twenty-five operations of the bowels every twelve hours, and we were convinced that unless it soon obtained relief it would not live. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended, and I decided to try it. I soon noticed a change for the better; by its continued use a complete cure was brought about and it is now perfectly healthy.—C. L. Boggs, Stumptown, Gilmer Co., W. Va. For sale by C. E. Holton.

The True Remedy.

W. M. Repine, editor Tiskilwa, Ill., "Chief," says: "We won't keep house without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, coughs and colds. Experimented with many others, but never got the true remedy until we used Dr. King's New Discovery. No other remedy can take its place in our home as in it we have a certain and sure cure for coughs, colds, whooping cough, etc." It is idle to experiment with other remedies, even if they are urged on you as just as good as Dr. King's New Discovery. They are not as good, because this remedy has a record of cures and besides is guaranteed. It never fails to satisfy. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store.
